Zero point adjustment is one of frequently performed tasks in plant. This work requires complicated operation for each device. FieldMate provides easy operation for this task.
Zero point adjustment with FieldMate

FieldMate connects and communicates with target device.

1. This is current measured value. This value is adjusted to zero.

2. Zero Adjustment function is launched with clicking this button.

Please click!
Zero point adjustment with FieldMate

Zero adjustment function is launched.

1. FieldMate looks up the zero point adjustment parameter automatically.

2. This is setting value.

3. Execute Zero point adjustment.

Please click!
Zero point adjustment with FieldMate

Zero point adjustment is performed.

1. Adjustment value is set.
2. Close function.

Please click!
Thank you for your attention.