YS1700 – Initializing to Factory Defaults

Tech note TN12015

vigilantplant.®
The clear path to operational excellence

YOKOGAWA ◆

Overview

- This tech note makes it possible to revert the YS1700 back to the factory default condition.

- This is sometimes necessary when unknown changes have been made to the program/configuration causing problems with the particular process.

vigilantplant.®
The clear path to operational excellence

YOKOGAWA ◆

WARNING: Do not explore any of the other menus/parameters not outlined in this procedure. Making changes not described here can cause your controller to cease to function properly. This problem will not be covered under warranty.

1. Apply power to the controller while pressing the key and key simultaneously.

2. Use the soft keys , to highlight "TEST" then press the soft keys , , to set the password 5678.

3. Press the key 2 times while holding the key to show the ADJ MENU.

vigilantplant.®
The clear path to operational excellence

YOKOGAWA

4. Select "CALIB 1" using the soft keys.

5. Use the soft keys ⬆, ⬇ to highlight "PINIT" then press the soft keys △, ▽, to set the value to 1.

6. The value will automatically return to 0 within five seconds. Leave the unit undisturbed for 15 seconds.

7. Cycle power. Initialization Complete.

vigilantplant.®
The clear path to operational excellence

YOKOGAWA

Thank you!

vigilantplant.®
The clear path to operational excellence

YOKOGAWA